

ISN p. 48 Metamorphic Rocks

- Form when an existing rock goes through heat (from surrounding bodies of magma) AND/OR pressure (from mountain building processes)
- Form deep underground
- Two types of metamorphic rocks:
 - Foliated – visible bands of minerals (pressure in one or two directions)
 - Nonfoliated – NO visible bands of minerals (pressure in many directions)